

“By working in office real estate, I am able to interact with a diverse group of people and help find solutions to their challenges.”

Gary is a West Michigan native and highly experienced commercial real estate professional. He appreciates the unique culture within the market, the people, as well as the entrepreneurial spirit and work ethic that is intricately apart of our city.

His desire to help clients succeed in their real estate goals stems from watching the West Michigan community care for one another and the culture it has fostered.

Gary has an extensive background in commercial real estate, allowing him to provide valuable market insights and keep an active pulse on the market.

With expert knowledge in his office specialty, Gary takes a research-based approach to solve a variety of problems for his clients, to efficiently deliver results. Gary generally works on all aspects of an office transaction, but his niche involves landlord and tenant negotiations in the Grand Rapids suburban market.
