

Our TAKE:
Beer City

ADVANTAGE
COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE

Our TAKE:
Beer City

Frankenmuth Brewery | 2022

The oldest brewery in Michigan is Frankenmuth Brewery. Fallier opened it in 1893. The brewery is still located on what was the northern part of the Failler's property.

The Brewery Frankenmuth Mich 19

EMPH-t

Our TAKE:
Beer City

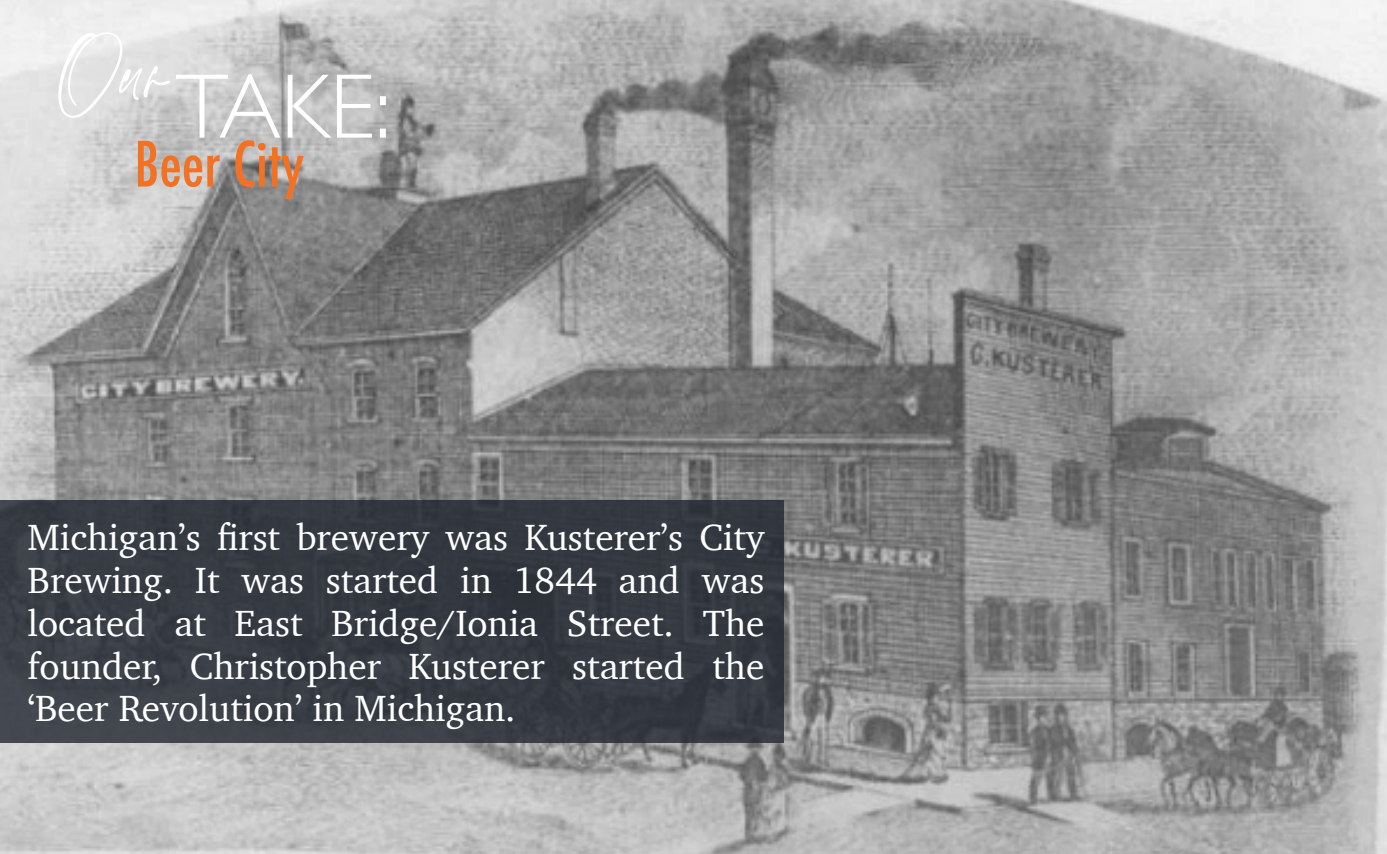

Grand Rapids Brewing Co. | 2022

Grand Rapids Brewing Co. is the oldest in the city. It was built in 1893 off Michigan/Ionia Street after 6 local breweries combined to form one large brewery. It reopened in 2012, after being closed for 79 years due to the prohibition.

RELS.

Our TAKE:
Beer City

Michigan's first brewery was Kusterer's City Brewing. It was started in 1844 and was located at East Bridge/Ionia Street. The founder, Christopher Kusterer started the 'Beer Revolution' in Michigan.

Our TAKE:
Beer City

EAGLE BREWERY,

VEIT & RATHMANN, Proprietors,

Corner First and Stocking Sts., West Side, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

OHIO HOUSE,

VALENTINE RICHTER, Prop'r.

North-East Corner Canal and Hastings Sts.,

Good Stabling. Grand Rapids, Mich.

Brewery Advertisements | 1876

In 2018, Michigan breweries produced nearly 900K gallons of beer a year. That's 3.7 gallons per adult 21+ in the state. There are 450 craft beer breweries in Michigan which contributes $133 million dollars to the economy and 35,000 jobs.