

"I find joy in my work because it allows me to combine my passion for accounting with the commitment to uphold West Michigan values."

Marlene Boss is an accomplished professional with over two decades of accounting expertise, currently serving as the Property Accountant at Advantage Commercial Real Estate. Her career trajectory reflects a diverse range of experiences, including a decade as the office manager for an automotive sales group, where she honed her organizational and managerial skills.

Prior to her role in commercial real estate, Marlene played a pivotal role in a family business for an impressive 25 years, demonstrating dedication and making significant contributions, particularly during a phase of business acquisition. Marlene's commitment to fostering strong and reputable companies is rooted in her appreciation for West Michigan. Her passion for the local community is evident in her thorough work, ensuring businesses not only survive but thrive, making a positive impact in every organization she becomes a part of.
